

SAILING TRIP IN ZAKYNTHOS

This full-day sailing cruise is the best way to discover the National Marine Park of Zakynthos on the south of the Island

SUMMARY

- The boat departs at 9 am from the port of Zakynthos and returns at 6 in the afternoon. Duration is 9 hours
- When the boat departs, it heads for the caves of Keri, sailing past Vassilikos coast and the islands of Pelouzo and Marathonissi.
- In the caves of Keri, the passengers can dive and enjoy the scenery but also see the sea bottom with a mask, as long as they want to.
- After the caves of Keri, the boat will drop anchor on the beach of the village. Passengers can have a meal in a traditional tavern, walk on the beach or do some shopping.
- While returning to the port of Zakynthos, the boat will sail past the wonderful beaches of Vassilikos again.
- Turtles usually accompany the boat and offer many photographic snapshots.
- The passengers can choose to swim either on crowded beaches or in isolated ones, as well as to stay longer in a place, of course after agreement with the captain.
- The captain will examine every customer request and fulfil it, depending on the weather and travel conditions.
- There is always the customer's choice, if they wish, to be transported from their place of residence with a luxury vehicle (different charge applies).
- The experienced crew of the boat will welcome and serve you, taking care of your spending unforgettable moments.
